Arriving to Villa Rosaria

On Saturday, transfers have been planned for you to be picked up from either the Naples airport or the Naples train station and have you on your way to Villa Rosaria by 3:30 PM. All travel arrangements need to be made accordingly, otherwise alternative methods will have to be arranged. Upon reaching the Villa, there will be some time for you to unpack and relax. On your first night at Villa you will be greeted with a welcome dinner designed especially for you by a private chef.

Villa Rosaria

Prepare to be amazed as you overlook the mystical sea of the Siren Islands. Enjoy seven nights in Massa Lubrense, a cozy village on the hills of Sorrento. The villa has many amenities and is equipped with all the modern comforts. Villa Rosaria is surrounded by lush gardens and stunning views of Capri, Ischia, Procida, Naples, and Mt. Vesuvius. Yes the villa has WiFi.

Sunday - After breakfast, we will have the day to recoup from the travels while relaxing at the villa. A light lunch will be supplied at the villa. We will then head to the center of Sorrento for a little free time followed by dinner at a local restaurant.

Monday - We will begin the day with a continental breakfast. The bulk of the day we'll be cruising on the Mediterranean, enjoying vistas, touring around Capri, stopping in grottos, only the locals know about, and diving into the refreshing sea. Or you may choose to spend time on the island sightseeing and shopping. We will pack a lunch for our adventure. We will head back to the villa for a dinner prepared by a private chef.

Tuesday - We begin the day with breakfast, then take in breathe-taking views from the Amalfi Coast as we visit Positano and Amalfi. While in these seaside beauties, there will be time for sightseeing, shopping, or taking in the sun. Lunch will be on your own today, but don't get too full because later we'll be feasting at an enchanting seafood restaurant on the Sorrento coast.

Wednesday - Following breakfast, once again we will enjoy a marvelous full day on a private boat. This time we will relish the picturesque views of the Amalfi Coast from the sea. Like our first boat excursion there will be plenty of time to jump in the refreshing waters. We will again pack a lunch for our boat trip and dinner will be prepared at the villa by a private chef.

Thursday - Starting the day off with breakfast, next its off to a winery near Mt. Vesuvius for a wine tasting and a bite to eat. The region of Campania is the birthplace of Pizza and you just cannot go home without having pizza. After our visit to the vineyard we can savor the rest of the after noon at the villa while the brick oven gets fired up for our pizza party on the terrace facing Capri and the Vesuvius.

Friday - There is a saying in Italian, Dolce far Niente, the sweetness of nothing. That's exactly what is planned for the day. Between breakfast and dinner the day is yours to do whatever you would like in the Amalfi Coast... and whatever your desires are... we will help you make them happen. We have picked out a phenomenal Michelin-rated restaurant in Sorrento, for our last dinner together.

Saturday - There will be one final breakfast at the villa and then we depart for the Naples Airport or train station for your return home. If you need assistance making different travel arrangements, we are here to help you.
